

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD

JAMES K. BURKE,
Appellant,

DOCKET NUMBER
PH-3443-18-0033-I-1

v.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, Agency.

DATE: March 3, 2023

James K. Burke, Cromwell, Connecticut, pro se.

Jennifer B. Bryan, Esquire, Washington, D.C., for the agency.

BEFORE

Cathy A. Harris, Vice Chairman
Raymond A. Limon, Member

FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed for lack of jurisdiction his appeal challenging his nonselection for a Supervisory Criminal Investigator position. On petition for review, the appellant argues that the agency violated its responsibilities as a delegated examining authority under 5 U.S.C. § 1104 and that it violated merit systems principles.<sup>2</sup> Generally, we grant petitions such as this one only in the following circumstances: the initial decision contains erroneous findings of material fact; the initial decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of statute or regulation or the erroneous application of the law to the facts of the case; the administrative judge's rulings during either the course of the appeal or the initial decision were not consistent with required procedures or involved an abuse of discretion, and the resulting error affected the outcome of the case; or new and material evidence or legal argument is available that, despite the petitioner's due diligence, was not available when the record closed. Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 1201.115 (5 C.F.R. § 1201.115). After fully considering the filings in this appeal, we conclude that the petitioner has not established any basis under section 1201.115 for granting the petition for review.

<sup>1</sup> A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

<sup>2</sup> The appellant indicated on his appeal that he is entitled to veterans' preference. Initial Appeal File, Tab 1 at 1. To the extent he wishes to pursue a claim concerning a violation of his veterans' preference rights in connection with this nonselection, he may do so by filing a new appeal with the Board's regional office. The Board has jurisdiction over two types of claims under the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act of 1998 (VEOA): (1) the denial of a right to compete; and (2) the violation of a statute or regulation relating to veterans' preference. See 5 U.S.C. § 3330a\(a\)\(1\)\(A\) (veterans' preference claims); 5 U.S.C. §§ 3330a\(a\)\(1\)\(B\), 3304\(f\)\(1\) (right-to-compete claims). To establish Board jurisdiction over a veterans' preference appeal under section 3330a(a)(1)(A), an appellant must: (1) show that he exhausted his remedy with the Department of Labor (DOL); and (2) make nonfrivolous allegations that (i) he is a preference eligible within the meaning of VEOA, (ii) the action(s) at issue took place on or after the 1998 enactment date of VEOA, and (iii) the agency violated his rights under a statute or regulation relating to veterans' preference. To establish jurisdiction over a "right to compete" appeal under section 3330a(a)(1)(B), an appellant must: (1) show that he exhausted his remedy with the DOL; and (2) make nonfrivolous allegations that (i) he is a veteran within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 3304\(f\)\(1\), (ii) the action at issue took place on or after the enactment date of the Veterans' Benefits Improvement Act of 2004, and (iii) the agency, in violation of 5 U.S.C. § 3304\(f\)\(1\), denied him an opportunity to compete under merit promotion procedures for a vacant position for which the agency accepted applications from individuals outside its own workforce.

Therefore, we DENY the petition for review and AFFIRM the initial decision, which is now the Board's final decision. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.113\(b\).

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS<sup>3</sup>

You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(a\)\(1\). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. If you wish to seek review of this final decision, you should immediately review the law applicable to your claims and carefully follow all filing time limits and requirements. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.

(1) Judicial review in general. As a general rule, an appellant seeking judicial review of a final Board order must file a petition for review with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which must be received by the court within 60 calendar days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(1\)\(A\).

<sup>3</sup> Since the issuance of the initial decision in this matter, the Board may have updated the notice of review rights included in final decisions. As indicated in the notice, the Board cannot advise which option is most appropriate in any matter.

If you submit a petition for review to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you must submit your petition to the court at the following address:

U.S. Court of Appeals
for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20439

Additional information about the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is available at the court's website, www.cafc.uscourts.gov. Of particular relevance is the court's "Guide for Pro Se Petitioners and Appellants," which is contained within the court's Rules of Practice, and Forms 5, 6, 10, and 11.

If you are interested in securing pro bono representation for an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you may visit our website at <http://www.mspb.gov/probono> for information regarding pro bono representation for Merit Systems Protection Board appellants before the Federal Circuit. The Board neither endorses the services provided by any attorney nor warrants that any attorney will accept representation in a given case.

(2) Judicial or EEOC review of cases involving a claim of discrimination. This option applies to you only if you have claimed that you were affected by an action that is appealable to the Board and that such action was based, in whole or in part, on unlawful discrimination. If so, you may obtain judicial review of this decision—including a disposition of your discrimination claims—by filing a civil action with an appropriate U.S. district court (not the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit), within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(2\); see Perry v. Merit Systems Protection Board, 582 U.S. ____ , 137 S. Ct. 1975 (2017). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the district court no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision. If the action involves a claim of discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or a disabling condition, you may be entitled to representation by a court-appointed lawyer and to waiver of any requirement of prepayment of fees, costs, or other security. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5\(f\) and 29 U.S.C. § 794a.

Contact information for U.S. district courts can be found at their respective websites, which can be accessed through the link below:

http://www.uscourts.gov/Court\_Locator/CourtWebsites.aspx.

Alternatively, you may request review by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) of your discrimination claims only, excluding all other issues. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). You must file any such request with the EEOC's Office of Federal Operations within 30 calendar days after you receive this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7702\(b\)\(1\). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the EEOC no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision.

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC by regular U.S. mail, the address of the EEOC is:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
P.O. Box 77960
Washington, D.C. 20013

If you submit a request for review to the EEOC via commercial delivery or by a method requiring a signature, it must be addressed to:

Office of Federal Operations
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
131 M Street, N.E.
Suite 5SW12G
Washington, D.C. 20507

(3) Judicial review pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act of 2012. This option applies to you only if you have raised claims of reprisal for whistleblowing disclosures under 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(8\) or other protected activities listed in 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(9\)\(A\)\(i\), \(B\), \(C\), or \(D\). If so, and your judicial petition for review “raises no challenge to the Board’s disposition of allegations of a prohibited personnel practice described in section 2302(b) other than practices described in section 2302(b)(8), or 2302(b)(9)(A)(i), (B), (C), or (D),” then you may file a petition for judicial review either with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or any court of appeals of competent jurisdiction.<sup>4</sup> The court of appeals must receive your petition for review within 60 days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(1\)\(B\).

If you submit a petition for judicial review to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, you must submit your petition to the court at the following address:

U.S. Court of Appeals
for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20439
